Day 2

Wednesday, October 14

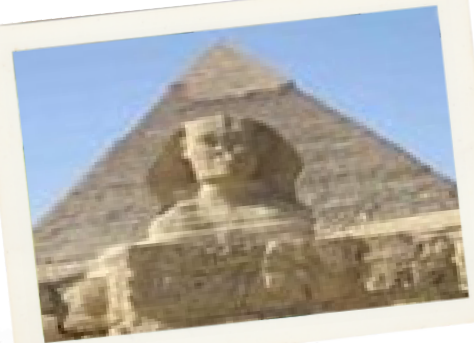

Breakfast at the hotel, at 08:00 am. We will be met by our private Egyptologist in the hotel's lobby and picked to start our first visit by the Great pyramids - Cheops, Chephren & Mykerions; Cheops is the most colossal ever built. Next is a close-up look at Sphinx- a huge funeral complex guarded by the legendary lion body with the face of King Chephren.

The Great Pyramids of Giza built for the Pharaohs Cheops, Chephren and Mycerinus. They were constructed about 2500 BC with blocks of limestone from the plateau and from the Turah hills on the outskirts of Cairo.

The Great Pyramid of Cheops alone, the only present-day survivor of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, required over 2,300,000 blocks of stone, each weighing about 2.5 tons. At its base, it covers 13 acres of land. Millions of visitors come each year to ponder the fascinating mystery of their existence and explore the ancient burial chambers within.

Big news: The Great Pyramid became unlimited number of tickets available per day for entrance INSIDE through the staff. But this will be with extra cost for the ticket.

An optional Camel Ride for 10-15 minutes at Pyramids area could be arranged with your guide with extra cost.

Wednesday, October 14

When we're at the Pyramids area, we'll have a chance to make a stop to visit one of the trustable jewelry shops to buy your personal gifts. Facultative lunch at local restaurant with extra cost.

Then we drive to downtown (TAHRIR SQUIRE) to visit "the Egyptian Museum" of antiquities, sitting in the shadows of Cairo's modern town hall, the elegant coral-pink and copper-domed Egyptian Museum strikes a gentle pose. The restrained neo-classical French exterior is little preparation for the awesome array of treasures and ancient wonders that wait silently behind its arched windows.

Stepping through the entrance into the grand central atrium, monumental statues tower overhead from the imposing Colossus of Amenhotep III to King Djoser's life-size sculpture.

The ground floor galleries take you on a trip through time, each room filled with the splendors of a great kingdom. King Narmer's 5,000 year old palette is an item of major artistic and historical importance.

Ancient Egypt's cultural wealth is also shown in many other artefacts that reveal the skill of ancient artisans. But it's the upper floor that holds the greatest allure. The Tutankhamun Galleries house over 1,700 items including Tutankhamun's famous tomb, discovered in the Valley of the Kings in West-Thebes, opposite modern Luxor.

The Egyptian Museum is just simply unrivalled with over 136,000 items on display, not mentioning the hundreds of thousands in the basement. These items date back to the very origins of a united Egypt in 3,100 BC. The museum is renowned for holding the finest collection of Egyptian antiquities in the world.

At the end of the day you will be transferred to the hotel and overnight in Cairo.
